

CIC-DIASPORA now has a Representative in Georgia

Insurance • Pension • Investment • Unit Trust

The Cooperative Insurance Company of Kenya which is owned by the Cooperative movement of Kenya has introduced several products for the Kenyans in Diaspora. In June this year, CIC sent a high powered delegation led by the managing Director Mr. Nelson Kuria who came to train and launch the operations in the U.S. The products offered by CIC were developed after listening to the need of the Diaspora. It is prayers answered according to many people who have already bought these products. Most popular once are:

CIC Diaspora Jijenge Investment Plan

CIC Diaspora Jijenge Investment plan supports periodic accumulation of capital. You will get guaranteed returns over the term of the contract period of 12 years while enjoying a minimum life cover

CIC Diaspora Jipange Pension Plan

CIC Diaspora Jipange Pension Plan is designed to ensure financial independence in old age so that your lifestyle is not compromised in your less active years. For those in Diaspora who do not qualify for pension for one reason or the other, they now have an opportunity to save for the future when their bodies cannot do triples and doubles.

CIC DIASPORA LAST EXPENSE COVER

Kenyans living in the Diaspora have experienced difficulty when a fellow Kenyan living in their community dies and the cost of repatriation is borne by friends and family. The funds that have to be raised eat into other people's savings. CIC has developed a solution to cater for this last expense to ensure that Kenyans living in the Diaspora receive a dignified funeral and return home in the unfortunate event of death.

Over the past 10 years CIC has undergone major transformations and growth to become the third largest life business underwriter in Kenya, and seventh largest insurance company out of 43 Insurance companies in Kenya. It is a strong, profitable and well capitalized company and currently the market leader in co-operative & microfinance sectors with an average growth of 27% over the last 5 years. CIC is a member of International Co-operative Alliance (ICA) & International Co-operative & Mutual Insurance Federation (ICMIF) which has placed it as an important player in the global industry.
